Preface

Dear NASPA Member:

I am proud to present the new 1990-91 NASPA Member Handbook. This edition of the handbook has been revised and enlarged to serve you more efficiently. Whether you're a new member of NASPA or a veteran, there's valuable information for all.

You'll find new information in this edition—a listing of past presidents of NASPA, past award recipients, a change of address form, some frequently asked questions about NASPA membership, and an explanation of membership categories. Don't worry, though, we haven't deleted any information. You'll still find the handy reference, Standards of Professional Practice; NASPA's bylaws; and the listing of regional advisory boards. We have also continued to feature advertisements. We appreciate the support of our advertisers and hope they will continue to support us.

The 1990-91 edition of the NASPA Member Handbook alphabetically lists all current NASPA members as of June 15, 1990. For quick referencing, there's even a section listing members by their institution and state.

We hope you'll find the NASPA Member Handbook to be a valuable reference tool. With a listing of over 5,300 members, it's certainly a way to communicate and share ideas with others in student affairs.

NASPA History

In December of 1918, Robert Rienow, the dean of men at the University of Iowa, wrote a letter to Thomas Arkle Clark, dean of men at the University of Illinois, suggesting a meeting that is now recognized as the founding of the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators. The meeting was held at the University of Wisconsin in January of 1919, with six men present. In attendance were three deans of men and three professors having campus interests of this type but no title. In reporting on the first meeting, Professor Louis A. Strauss of the University of Michigan referred to it as the Conference of Deans and Advisers of Men. This label became popular and was used until 1929 when it was modified as the National Association of Deans and Advisers of Men (NADAM). The title was apt because the dean of men's title was not widespread on the American college campus at that time. Thomas Arkle Clark was the first person to claim the title in 1909, although he assumed the responsibilities in 1901.

Scott Goodnight, dean of men at the University of Wisconsin, served as host for this historic first meeting. Retroactively, he is referred to as the first president of NADAM. Actually, he was selected as chairman during the meeting, a kind of incidental formality not seen at the time as having any significance. The success of this meeting, as participants agreed, suggested that another should be held, with invitations extended to anyone who might be interested. It is clear that the second meeting was pivotal to the life of the organization. Held on the University of Illinois campus with an attendance of nine, it was decided that future meetings should occur annually on the campus of one of the members. A committee of three was named to handle arrangements. Short papers for discussion were introduced as a supplement for the informal discussions; the latter being seen by participants as the primary value in meeting. Informal conversations concerning the role of the dean of men were extremely important to participants because many of them were recently appointed and had no firm grasp of what to expect. Dean Clark once said, "It was an untried sea upon which I was about to set sail." C. E. Edmondson, a physician who was dean of men at Indiana University, noted that when he was appointed dean of men his president was to talk to Dean Clark, "as perhaps he could tell me what a dean of men was." Shop talk at meetings for several years helped in this respect, there being little "theory" to consider. Shop talk should not be equated with small talk, however, as participants regularly commented on the inspiration they received from the annual meetings. War stories from the home campus also were common, and stories were apparently colorfully told. No record of much of what went on in the long informal discussion exists, but participants were highly educated men, scholars in their own right, having strong spiritual roots, and a clear idea of how young men should conduct themselves. The tools at their disposal were indeed primitive; they consulted with each other as a means of mutual education.

It was 1925 when the first piece of "research" was offered at a NADAM meeting. The summary was presented by John Bennett of Teachers College, Columbia University, and dealt with the prevalence of the office of dean of men in American colleges and universities together with the recognized duties and powers of the office. By 1928, one can find "A Statistical Study of the Relationship Between Extra Curricular Activities and Scholarship" offered by Dean Earl Miller of UCLA.

The last meeting of the '20s was the first to be conducted away from the college campus. The conference was held at the Mayflower Hotel in Washington, D.C., with 76 men attending. Members paid dues of $10.

The 1930s marked the development of the first formal constitution of NADAM. The institutional membership was established in 1932, giving each institution one vote, but extending an invitation to as many representatives as an institution might wish to send. The constitution also called for a seven man Executive Committee. Any educational institution was eligible for membership upon acceptance by the Executive Committee. Records do not reveal any rejections for membership.

In 1932, "The Counselor" made a brief and inauspicious appearance to be followed over the years with continued requests for publications. The NASPA Journal, as it appears today, was not introduced until 1963. In the meantime, several newsletters found their way to members, with different names at different times. Perhaps the most familiar of these was "The Breeze."

As early as the 1920s, NADAM played a valuable placement role for its members. A network of informal contacts helped newer members become alert to job possibilities across the country. Dean Arno "Shorty" Nowotny of the University of Texas played a key role in this activity for many years. This was a valuable tool during the Depression; the placement function continues today as an important function of the association's efforts to assist its members.

History cont'd.

The organization grew slowly, with 87 in attendance in 1939. This was somewhat disconcerting to those who enjoyed the small group informality of earlier meetings. Efforts to continue the informality were introduced, grouping deans for part of the annual conference into small/medium/large institution meetings.

Change was in the air as many deans in attendance were not called either "deans of men" or "advisers to men." A speech in 1937 by W. H. Cowley, entitled "The Disappearing Dean of Men," emphasized that change would accelerate. Among Cowley's accurate perceptions was his understanding of the emergence of the dean of students as the central officer of the future in student affairs.

One of NADAM's major preoccupations in the 1940s was World War II and its aftermath. The adaptation of campuses to the war effort are reflected in conference minutes, and the problems relating to veterans once the war was over took the rest of the decade. Members still found time to comment often about the "role" problem of NADAM. Over 30 different "titles" of attending administrators were counted at one conference, suggesting a broader role for NADAM was required. The decade was noted by the presence of Armour Blackburn of Howard University, the first black administrator to participate and the only one to serve on a NADAM Executive Committee. In 1949, the annual meeting reached 217, passing 200 for the first time.

Dean Wesley P. Lloyd at Brigham Young University led the way in 1951 to the creation of the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators (NASPA). Having been defeated in two earlier votes (1948 and 1949), this time the recommended name change passed; nearly unanimously. This broadened the base of the association and for the first time it began actively to seek members. Until 1951 no one had ever been recruited by the association. Members were free to encourage colleagues to join but the association sent no invitations to American college campuses. The purpose of the expanded association was stated to be, "to discuss and study the most effective methods of aiding students in their intellectual, social, moral, and personal development."

It was now clear that women eventually would seek membership in the organization that now promoted itself as the professional home for chief student affairs professionals and their principal assistants. Seven years later, Mary Ethel Ball, acting dean of students at the University of Colorado, became the first female "institutional representative" of NASPA. (It may be an interesting footnote to history to indicate that a Dean Blitz at the University of Minnesota is remembered as the first woman to attend a NADAM/NASPA meeting in 1926. She was a guest of Dean E. E. Nicholson when the conference met in Minneapolis.)

Women administrators did not immediately decide to participate in NASPA. The "old boy" reputation was on the one hand unfair because young administrators were always encouraged in NADAM/NASPA.

Of course, historically only the "boys" were present, and women apparently were concerned about how they would fare in a previously all male organization.

Five commissions were established at the 1951 conference to deal with substantive, ongoing issues (e.g., professional relationships, ethics, professional preparation). A secondary benefit of the commissions was in making more members able to participate in the association's activities.

The remainder of the 1950s involved the development of the commission idea, the number reaching eight by 1959, and a continuation of conferences attempting to deal directly with the dean job. Conference attendance passed 300 in 1958. Dues were increased to $25 in 1959. The dues were solely for operating expenses, as no one received any compensation for work done in behalf of the association. Informality continued as an association hallmark. It was revealed at the 1959 meeting that no one had ever seen a copy of the constitution. It was acknowledged that none had been published for several years.

The 1960s marked many changes in NASPA. For the first time outside funding was secured for a NASPA activity. NASPA was an early leader in educating members concerning drug abuse, with funding obtained from the federal government. NASPA was an active participant in the development of the "Joint Statement on Rights and Freedoms of Students" which the association then endorsed in 1968. From 1966 until the end of the decade and beyond, crisis was the most prominent campus issue and the most prominent association concern. Some deans were enormously successful in protecting both their campuses and rights of students, but disruption of campuses became more prevalent.

Almost unnoticed, the regionalization of NASPA occurred in the early 1960s when regional vice presidents emerged, eventually playing a dominant role in the Executive Committee. Seven vice presidents were elected, representing the six national accreditation regions (Region IV because of its size was divided into IV East and IV West). O. D. Roberts at Purdue University and Don Marsh at Wayne State University became NASPA's unpaid controllers, and in 1967 a national office was created in Detroit, Michigan.

History cont'd.

The period 1965-75 could be called the pivotal decade for women in NASPA. Pat Cross, then of Cornell University, was the first woman appointed to the NASPA Executive Committee in 1966. Lenore Cole of American University was the first woman (and the first minority person) to be elected a regional vice president. In 1971 Chet Peters named Alice Manicur at Frostburg State College to the Executive Committee with a charge to establish a network with women colleagues across the nation, and to assure them that their participation would be acknowledged by the association. This was a successful effort in many ways, as today some 40 percent of the NASPA membership is comprised of women. Alice Manicur eventually became the first woman president of NASPA in 1976. Six years later, Mikell O'Donnell at Ohio State University became the second woman president. Judith Chambers at the University of the Pacific was elected the third woman president in 1985.

Minority members also sought a more inclusive voice during this period. The regionalization of NASPA heightened opportunities for involvement, and the Executive Committee used its at-large seats to give minority and women members increased national visibility. Opportunities to demonstrate leadership have led to a number of division chairs and regional vice presidencies, and in 1985 Bob E. Leach at Florida State University became NASPA's first minority president.

Community colleges began to make their presence felt in NASPA during the decade. George Young at Broward Community College was the first community college vice president to serve on the NASPA Executive Committee and to chair a national conference. In 1979, he became the first community college person to serve as president of NASPA. He was followed in 1981 by E. T. (Joe) Buchanan III at Tidewater Community College.

Dissatisfaction with the nominating process for NASPA presidents surfaced in the early 1970s. James R. Appleton at the University of Southern California was the first president elected in a contested race at the Philadelphia conference and James J. Rhatigan at Wichita State University was the first person elected in a mail ballot to the entire membership.

Among the hallmarks of NASPA's development was the selection of Channing M. Briggs as part-time controller in 1970, and the moving of the national office to Portland State University in that same year. Channing Briggs eventually became a full-time executive secretary with a small staff, and in 1975 was named the first executive director of NASPA. The Briggs period marked an important period both in growth and in the professional sophistication of NASPA as an organization.

Upon his retirement in 1981, Richard F. Stevens became the second executive director, and the national office was moved to Ohio State University. In 1985 the association voted to move its headquarters to Washington, D.C. After carefully considering the logistics of the move, the national office relocated to Washington, D.C., in June 1987 and Elizabeth M. Nuss, former dean of undergraduate life at Indiana University, succeeded Stevens as executive director.

Today NASPA has a Board of Directors, 1,080 institutional members and 5,300 total members, seven regions with active programs, and a bright future. Perhaps all of this is due to six deans of men meeting in Madison, Wisconsin 71 years ago.

Standards of Professional Practice

The National Association of Student Personnel Administrators (NASPA) is an organization of professional educators whose members represent colleges, universities and educational agencies by providing services that promote student educational and personal growth. The association seeks to promote student personnel work as a profession which requires personal integrity, belief in the dignity and worth of individuals, respect for individual differences, a commitment to service, and dedication to the development of individuals through education and personal growth. NASPA also seeks to support student personnel work through its efforts to expand professional knowledge and to provide opportunities for members to develop skills and expertise through professional education and experience. The following standards were endorsed by NASPA at the February 1983 Board of Directors meeting.

1. Professional Service

A member should provide professional service in a manner which fulfills the mission of the employing institution, and which supports the educational interests, rights, and welfare of students.

2. Agreement with Institutional Goals, Mission

Members who accept employment with an educational institution imply agreement with the general mission and goals of the institution.

3. Management of Institutional Resources

Members seek to advance the welfare of the employing institution through accountability for the proper use of institutional funds, personnel, equipment, and other resources. Members inform appropriate officials of conditions which may be potentially disruptive or damaging to the institution's mission, personnel, and property.

4. Employment Contracts

Members honor employment contracts. Members do not commence new duties or obligations at another institution under a new contractual agreement until termination of an existing contract, unless mutually agreed to by the member and the member's current and new supervisor.

5. Conflict of Interest

A. Members recognize that their primary obligation is to the employing institution and seek to avoid private interests, obligations, and transactions which are, or even appear to be, in conflict of interest.

B. Members clearly distinguish between statements and actions which represent their own personal views and those which represent their employing institution when important to do so.

C. A member should reasonably restrict his/her private interest, obligations, and transactions to minimize the likelihood of conflict of interest or any appearance of impropriety.

6. Legal Authority

Members attempt to obey all lawful authority. Members refrain from conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, and misrepresentation or unlawful discrimination. NASPA recognizes that many legal questions are unclear, and members should seek the advice of counsel as appropriate. Members demonstrate concern for the legal and social codes and moral expectations of the communities in which they live and work even when the dictates of one's conscience may require behavior as a private citizen which is not in keeping with these codes/expectations.

7. Equal Consideration/Nondiscrimination

A. Members execute their professional responsibilities with fairness and impartiality and show equal consideration to individuals regardless of status or position.

B. Members encourage diversity and promote the educational and cultural advantages of pluralism.

8. Student Behavior

Members demonstrate and promote responsible behavior for students and support actions that enhance personal development of students. Members seek to enhance student's responsibility for his/her own behavior. In situations of threat to self, public health or safety, or of violations of law or institutional rules, regulations, or policies, constraints may be placed upon student behavior.

9. Accuracy and Integrity of Information

Members ensure that all information conveyed to students, employers, employees, supervisors, colleagues, and the public is factual and in appropriate context.

10. Confidentiality of Records

Members respect the confidential nature of educational and professional records. Except where law requires, they shall disclose such information only with proper authorization.

11. Research Involving Human Subjects

Members are aware of and take responsibility for all pertinent ethical principles and institutional requirements when planning any research activity dealing with human subjects. (See Ethical Principles in the Conduct of Research with Human Participants, Washington, D.C., American Psychological Association, 1973.)

16. Work Climate, Cooperation

Members promote a work climate of mutual respect, trust, and collegiality. Members work cooperatively with faculty and staff and with others outside the institution to promote institutional goals and programs.

17. Professional Development

Members have an obligation to continue personal professional growth by acquiring new knowledge, improving skills, sharing ideas and information, and participating in the meetings and affairs of the association. In the event the President-Elect assumes the responsibilities of the President as a result of the resignation or incapacity of that officer, the functions of the President-Elect shall be performed by the Vice Presidents as designated by the Board of Directors, and the Board shall promptly schedule and conduct an election to fill any vacancies created thereby.

SECTION 8. Regional Vice Presidents.

Seven Regional Vice Presidents shall be elected, one from each of the seven Regions as defined in Article II. The Vice Presidents from Regions I, III, IV-West, and VI shall be elected to take office in even-numbered years; the Vice Presidents from Regions II, IV-East, and V shall be elected to take office in odd-numbered years. The term of Vice President is two years. The Regional Vice President must be a Professional Affiliate in the electing region at the time of election and throughout the two-year term. Vice Presidents shall not be eligible to succeed themselves; provided, however, that a Regional Vice President serving the unexpired term of a predecessor shall be eligible for nomination for one succeeding full term.

- i. Representing the region at meetings of the Board of Directors.
- ii. Coordinating regional activities and acting as official spokesman for the Association in the region.

- iii. Serving as the official representative of the Association at meetings of other associations in the region, when requested by the President or Board of Directors.
- iv. Informing members and affiliates within the region of activities by regular communications or meetings.
- v. Planning and conducting regional activities which may be scheduled at the annual meeting.
- vi. Strengthening membership in the Association by serving on the Membership Committee.

The Regional Vice Presidents shall be elected by mail ballot prior to the annual meeting. All regional Voting Delegates, Professional Affiliates, and Faculty Affiliates shall be eligible to vote in their specific regional elections. At least two (2) nominees shall be presented to the regional membership for election so there will be a successor if a resignation occurs.

A simple majority is required for election. If more than two candidates are presented on the ballot, a run-off election may be required between the two individuals receiving the largest number of votes. In the event a Regional Vice President resigns or becomes incapacitated, or is removed, the candidate for Vice President receiving the next highest number of votes shall be invited to succeed that Vice Presidency. If that candidate does not succeed to the Vice Presidency, the Board of Directors shall specify the process for selection of the Regional Vice President.

Regions may choose to elect a Vice President-Elect to serve in the Region for the year prior to assuming the Regional Vice Presidency. In this case, nomination and election of the Regional Vice President-Elect will occur according to the above process the year before assuming the Regional Vice Presidency.

SECTION 9. Secretary.

The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board including all votes and resolutions adopted, and shall record all such documents and actions in a book kept for that purpose. The Secretary shall issue notices of all meetings, shall see to the filing of all reports required by governmental authorities, and shall perform such other functions and duties as the Board may from time to time prescribe. The Board of Directors may appoint and empower such Assistant Secretaries as shall be required to carry out the purpose of this section.

SECTION 10. Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall have custody of all funds, securities and assets of the Association. The Treasurer shall secure the keeping of full and accurate account of Association's receipts and disbursements, and ensure that all monies and other assets are deposited in the name of the Association in such depositories or through such fiscal agents as the Board may from time to time prescribe. The Treasurer shall oversee the disbursement of the funds and assets of the Association as ordered by the Board of Directors, and shall provide an accounting of all transactions at each regular meeting of the Board and at the Annual Meeting of the members. The Board of Directors may appoint and empower such Assistant Treasurers as shall be required to carry out the purpose of this section.

SECTION 11. Surety.

The Board of Directors may require the President, Treasurer or any other officer to furnish such surety as it may from time to time determine.

SECTION 12. Compensation of Officers.

Officers may be paid such reasonable compensation as the Board of Directors may from time to time authorize and direct, except that no officer who is a member of the Board may receive any compensation for services rendered in his or her capacity as a Director except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws.

ARTICLE V. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. General Powers.

The property, business and affairs of the Association shall be managed by its Board of Directors in accordance with these Bylaws and the purposes of the Association. The powers of the Board of Directors include, but are not limited to, the following:

- xii. Establishment of publication policies and responsibility for quality control of all publications.

Bylaws cont'd.

SECTION 2. Number and Qualifications.

The members of the initial Board of Directors shall be those persons named in Article Eight of the Articles of Incorporation of the Association, who shall serve until their successors shall be elected or appointed and qualified, in conformance with these Bylaws. The Board of Directors shall consist of the President, President-Elect, Immediate Past-President, seven Regional Vice Presidents, three Division Directors, three Members-At-Large, and Conference Chair, each of whom shall have one vote, and the Executive Director, who shall have no vote. The term of office begins at the close of the annual business meeting.

SECTION 3. Conference Chair.

The Conference Chair shall serve for a term of one year, following a term as Conference Chair-Designate. The Conference Chair shall be responsible for planning and directing the annual conference, subject to approval of the Board of Directors, shall prepare and submit a budget for the annual conference to be included in the budget of the Association, and shall carry out such other duties as may be specified. The Conference Chair is appointed by the Board of Directors upon the recommendation of the President-Elect.

SECTION 4. Division Directors.

The President shall appoint three Division Directors to serve on the Board of Directors for a term of two years, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors. Division Directors shall not succeed themselves; provided, however, that a Division Director serving an unexpired term of a predecessor shall be eligible for appointment for one succeeding two-year term.

SECTION 5. Members-At-Large.

The President shall appoint three Members-At-Large to serve on the Board of Directors for a term of one year, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors. A Member-At-Large may only be appointed to one additional term on the Board.

SECTION 6. Vacancies.

Vacancies shall be filled by majority vote of the remaining members of the Board of Directors for the unexpired term.

SECTION 7. Quorum.

A majority of the Directors then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business at any meeting of the Board of Directors. If at any meeting of the Board there shall be less than a quorum of Directors present, a majority of those Directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.

SECTION 8. Meetings.

Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such place and time as may be designated by resolution of the Board, or as may be specified in the notice of the meeting. Special meetings may be held at any time upon the call of the President or upon written request signed by two thirds of the Directors and submitted to the Secretary. Written notice of special meetings shall be given to each Director not less than one day before such meeting. Notice need not be given of regular meetings of the Board of Directors held at times fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors. Meetings may be held at any time without notice if all the Directors are present, or if at any time before or after the meeting those present waive notice of the meeting in writing.

SECTION 9. Waiver of Notice.

Any Director may waive notice of any meeting by a written statement executed either before or after the meeting. Attendance at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice thereof, except where attendance is for the express purpose of objecting to the call or convening of the meeting.

SECTION 10. Manner of Acting.

Except as otherwise expressly required by law, the Articles of Incorporation of the Association or these Bylaws, the act of a majority of the Directors present at a duly noticed meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 11. Compensation.

No Director shall receive any compensation for his or her services in such capacity, except that the Board may by resolution provide for the reimbursement of actual expenses incurred in the performance of the duties of Director, including for example such expenses for travel, lodging, meals, postage, photocopying, and long distance telephone calls.

ARTICLE VI. COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. Committees of Directors.

The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the Directors in office, may designate and appoint one or more committees, each of which shall consist of two or more Directors, which committees, to the extent provided in said resolution, shall have and exercise the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Association; provided, however, that no such committee shall have the authority of the Board of Directors in reference to amending, altering, or repealing these Bylaws; electing, appointing or removing any member of any such committee or any Director or officer of the Association; amending the Articles of Bylaws cont'd.

Incorporation of the Association, adopting a plan of merger or adopting a plan of consolidation with another corporation; authorizing the sale, lease, exchange or mortgage of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the Association; authorizing the voluntary dissolution of the Association or revoking proceedings therefor; adopting a plan for the distribution of the assets of the Association; or amending, altering or repealing any resolution of the Board of Directors which by its terms provides that it shall not be amended, altered or repealed by such committee. The designation and appointment of any such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any individual Director, or any responsibility imposed upon it, him or her by law.

SECTION 2. Executive Committee.

There shall be an Executive Committee of the Board of Directors which shall consist of the President, President-Elect, and the Past-President. The Executive Director shall serve ex officio and shall not vote. The Executive Committee shall have such powers and shall perform such duties as the Board may delegate to it by resolution from time to time. Any action duly taken by the Executive Committee within the course and scope of its authority shall be binding upon the Association. The Executive Committee may be abolished and reinstated at any time by the vote of a majority of the whole Board of Directors, and during the course of the committee's existence, the membership thereof may be increased or decreased and the authority and duties of the Committee changed by the Board of Directors as it may deem appropriate.

SECTION 3. Standing Committees.

The President, upon assuming office, shall appoint and set the responsibilities of the following standing committees with the approval of the Board of Directors:

- i. Selections Committee: Shall consist of the President-Elect who shall serve as chair, two Members-At-Large, and one Regional Vice President.
- ii. Membership Committee: Shall consist of the President-Elect who shall serve as chair, the Past-President, the Executive Director (ex officio), and the seven Regional Vice Presidents.
- iii. Nominations Committee: Shall consist of the incumbent Regional Vice Presidents and the three most recent Past-Presidents who wish to participate. The most recent Past-President shall serve as chair.

The Board may appoint such additional standing committees as it may from time to time determine. At its option the Board of Directors may appoint persons to these committees who are not Board members. Such committees shall be chaired by Board members and shall meet at the call of their respective Chairs, upon reasonable notice.

SECTION 4. Committees of Members.

Other Committees may be established and charged in such a manner as may be designated by resolution adopted by a majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Except as otherwise provided in such resolution, members of each such committee need not be Directors of the Association, and the President of the Association shall appoint the members thereof, and may remove any such member whenever in the President's judgment the best interest of the Association shall be served by such removal.

SECTION 5. Term of Office.

Each member of a committee shall continue as such until the next annual meeting of the Board of Directors and until his or her successor is appointed, unless the committee shall be sooner terminated, or unless such member be removed from such committee or unless such member shall cease to qualify as a member thereof.

SECTION 6. Chair.

One member of each committee shall be appointed Chair by the President of the Board of Directors except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws or by Board resolution.

SECTION 7. Vacancies.

Vacancies in the membership of any committee may be filled by appointments made in the same manner as provided in the case of the original appointments.

Vacancies shall be filled by the President in consultation with the Selections Committee, and the Board. Consultation shall include a determination of those constituencies to be represented.

SECTION 8. Quorum.

Unless otherwise provided in the resolution of the Board of Directors designating a committee, a majority of the whole committee shall constitute a quorum and the act of the majority of the members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the committee.

ARTICLE VII. DIVISIONS

SECTION 1. Composition of the Divisions.

The Board of Directors by resolution shall establish no less than three Divisions to foster and implement the purposes of the Association. As far as possible, the Divisions shall include regional representatives nominated by respective Regional Vice Presidents in consultation with the Division Director, approved by the Selections Committee and the Board of Directors.

Bylaws cont'd.

SECTION 2. Division Directors.

Each Division shall have a Director. Normally, the terms of Directors shall be staggered so as to ensure continuity among Divisions. The Director of each Division shall be appointed by the President with the approval of the Board of Directors, and shall serve for a term of two years. Division Directors shall not succeed themselves; provided, however, that a Division Director serving an unexpired term of a predecessor shall be eligible for appointment for one succeeding two-year term. Vacancies shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors by resolution shall determine the responsibilities of the Division Directors.

ARTICLE VIII. EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

SECTION 1. Terms of Employment.

The Board of Directors shall employ an Executive Director pursuant to an agreement. The Executive Director shall be appointed upon the majority vote of the Board of Directors and shall serve at the pleasure of the Board. A decision to terminate the employment of the Executive Director shall require two-thirds majority vote of the total Board of Directors. Vacancies in the position of Executive Director may be filled by interim appointment by the President until the next meeting of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Responsibilities of the Executive Director.

The Executive Director shall direct and execute all decisions of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as the Board may from time to time prescribe or authorize. The foregoing duties shall include, but not be limited to, the hiring and discharge of employees to fill such positions as the Board may from time to time authorize; the execution of contracts or other instruments on behalf of the Association as the Board may authorize; maintenance of membership records; and the signing of checks, drafts or other orders for payment of money provided that the Board may, by resolution, provide that such checks, drafts or other orders for payment above such amount as may be specified in the resolution shall require the countersignature of one or more specified officers of the Association. The Executive Director shall furnish the Board with an operating and financial report at each regular and special meeting thereof.

ARTICLE IX. DUES AND CHARGES

SECTION 1. Membership Dues.

The dues for all categories of members may be established only by the Board of Director. The Board of Directors may authorize an annual dues adjustment not to exceed the percentage change in the Consumer Price Index (CPI) for the previous year. Adjustments in excess of the CPI are subject to the affirmative vote of a majority of the Voting Delegates returning a mail ballot. The proposed dues adjustment in excess of the Consumer Price Index must be mailed to the official Voting Delegate at each member institution at least thirty (30) days prior to the ballot deadline. Ballots must be returned on or before the deadline date stated on the ballot.

ARTICLE X. HISTORIAN

SECTION 1. Historian.

The President shall appoint a Historian to chronicle the history of the Association. Such appointment shall be reported to the Board of Directors. The Historian shall serve until a President requests the Historian's resignation, or until the Historian resigns.

ARTICLE XI. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 1. Non-Discrimination.

The Association shall not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, gender, age, national origin, sexual orientation, or physical disability in the administration of its policies on membership, programs, services, publications, and employment.

SECTION 2. Member Resolution Process.

A member resolution is an instrument expressing the opinion, will, and intent of the Association Voting Delegates. Endorsement of a resolution by the delegate body constitutes a directed call for Board of Directors consideration. A resolution is distinct from a motion which results in the approval or disapproval of proposed Association rules. The Board of Directors bears the responsibility to deliberate on approved resolutions and to report their disposition to the delegate body.

The procedure for submitting resolution proposals is as follows:

- i. A draft of a proposed resolution may be submitted in writing to the appropriate Regional Vice President or to the President-Elect prior to the opening date of the conference.
- ii. Resolution proposals may be submitted to the Board of Directors any time during the conference prior to the annual business meeting.
- iii. Resolutions may be presented to the membership from the floor under "new business" during the annual business meeting.

SECTION 3. Indemnification.

The Corporation shall have the power to indemnify its officers, directors, employees and agents, and such other persons as designated by the Board of Directors, to the full extent permitted by law.

Bylaws cont'd.

SECTION 4. Books and Records.

The Association shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall also keep minutes of the proceedings of its Board of Directors and committees having any of the authority of the Board of Directors, and shall keep at its registered or principal office a record giving the names and addresses of the members of its Board of Directors, and shall keep at its registered or principal office in the District of Columbia a record of the names and addresses of members entitled to vote.

SECTION 5. Notice.

Whenever under the provisions of these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation of Corporation or statute, notice is required to be given to a Director, committee member or officer, such notice shall be given in writing, by mail or express delivery service, with postage or express delivery charges thereon prepaid, to such person at his or her address as it appears on the records of the Corporation. Such notice shall be deemed to have been given when mailed or delivered to the express delivery service. Notice may also be given by telegram, telex or telephone, and will be deemed given when received if followed by a writing mailed on the same day or the next day.

SECTION 6. Telephone Meetings.

Any one or more Directors or members of a committee may participate in a meeting of the Board or committee by means of a conference telephone or similar telecommunications device which allows all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other and such participation in a meeting shall be deemed presence in person at such meeting.

SECTION 7. Fiscal Year.

The fiscal year of the Association shall be established by resolution of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 8. Amendment.

These Bylaws may only be amended by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of those Voting Delegates returning a mail ballot on or before the deadline stated on the ballot. Proposed amendments must be mailed to the official Voting Delegate at each member institution at least thirty (30) days prior to the ballot return deadline date.

9. Scope of Bylaws.

The Bylaws of this Association are intended to govern all activities, operations, and organizational units. No region, unit, division, or other Association entity shall establish policy, procedures or guidelines which are not consistent with these documents. The Board of Directors is authorized by the membership to decide all questions regarding bylaw intent, purpose, or interpretation.

Common Questions and Answers about NASPA Membership

Q: If the institution has designated me as the voting delegate, do I have to join NASPA as an individual member?

A: No. As the voting delegate to NASPA, your membership is included in your institution's membership. Other individuals on your campus are now qualified to join NASPA at the reduced professional affiliate member rate. Full-time students may join at the student rate.

Q: When does my membership expire?

A: The expiration date is one year after the month you join NASPA; the only exception is NASPA institutional memberships which are renewed on July 1 each year. All memberships are renewed annually.

Q: What are the benefits of institutional membership?

A: Institutional membership ensures a college or university a definitive role in NASPA's activities. Voting delegates (chief student affairs officers holding institutional membership) elect NASPA presidents and vice presidents; vote on membership issues, e.g., bylaws changes; receive all NASPA monographs; receive information on governmental concerns in education as they evolve; receive reports of key issues by the NASPA president; receive additional publications such as Points of View, special reports purchased by NASPA from other associations like ACHA and ACE, salary surveys, and research reports; and may register for conferences and workshops at the member rate. Also, professional staff and faculty may join at the reduced membership rate. Incidentally, all professional affiliates and faculty affiliates, in addition to voting delegates of a region, elect the regional vice president. However, only the voting delegates elect the NASPA president.

Q: What is the purpose of my NASPA membership number?

A: Every member of NASPA is assigned an identification number. Your ID number is given on your membership card and is on the top line of your mailing label for the NASPA Forum and the NASPA Journal. Inquiries about your membership can be handled more efficiently when you give your ID number. Every institution has an ID which remains the same, regardless of personnel changes in the voting delegate.

Q: What can I do to help ensure I receive all my NASPA mailings and that my address appears correctly in the NASPA Member Handbook?

A: Notify the NASPA office as soon as you know your new address and telephone number. If possible, send a mailing label or copy of one so the change can be made promptly.

Q: When would I be considered a faculty affiliate as opposed to a professional affiliate?

A: Full-time participants in the teaching faculty of nonmember institutions are entitled to join at the special rate of $50 per year.

Q: How often are NASPA publications mailed?

A: The NASPA Forum is mailed to all members monthly, except for the summer months, and the NASPA Journal is mailed quarterly. Other periodic publications are sent to voting delegates as they become available.

Q: What other NASPA services are available that will help me in my professional and personal development?

A: The annual Richard F. Stevens Institute is a weeklong intensive management program for senior administrators devoted to improving leadership and administrative decision-making skills. Regional conferences and newsletters, the annual conference, seminars, awards, and networks are other benefits of NASPA membership that will help you personally and professionally. Career services and placement programs are available at the annual conference. Special programs for graduate students, including reduced membership rates and the graduate student case study competition, also are offered.

Q: How can I become involved in NASPA state and regional activities?

A: This member handbook lists the names, addresses and telephone numbers of national and regional leaders within NASPA. If you contact these leaders, you will receive notice of all regional activities. In addition, the NASPA Forum will contain calendar reminders.

Q: What happens to my membership if my institution decides not to renew its membership?

A: You may continue to be a member as an associate affiliate at a cost of $125 per year. Contact your regional membership coordinator or the NASPA office for an application.

Q: I work on a campus that is a NASPA member. Can I attend the conference or purchase publications at the member discount rate?

A: No. You must hold an individual membership as a professional affiliate or student affiliate.

Student Affairs and Campus Dissent

Reflection of the Past and Challenge for the Future

Keith M. Miser, ed.

As in the late 1960s and early 1970s, several campuses across the country are experiencing periods of student unrest. Student affairs professionals often find themselves "in the middle," providing institutional leadership to protect the rights of the dissenters, to foster communication, to negotiate issues to avoid disruption, and to develop/interpret institutional policies. This practical book provides strategic principles student affairs professionals can use to address student activism. Includes an appendix of four institutions' policies on campus dissent. 148 pp. (1988).

Alcohol Policies and Practices on College and University Campuses

Joan S. Sherwood, ed.

The policies described in this book are from the Interassociation Task Force on Alcohol Issues which represents nearly all college administrators and students leaders involved in student affairs work. This book should be on every student affairs professional's bookshelf! 112 pp. (1987).

Points of View* is a compendium of all three statements. This practical book outlines the beliefs that guide the student affairs profession. This book is a must for every graduate student or new professional. 72 pp. (1989).

Opportunities for Student Development in Two-Year Colleges

Don G. Creamer and Charles R. Dassance, eds.

Written by eight student affairs practitioners at two-year colleges, this book looks at some of the conditions inherent at two-year colleges that may not stimulate students' development—short-time duration, commuter status of students, part-time enrollment patterns, the dominance of a career-oriented curriculum, and infrequent student/faculty or student/student interaction. Principles for practice are suggested as a summary to guide the practitioner. 96 pp. (1986).

Private Dreams, Shared Visions

Student Affairs Work in Small Colleges

George D. Kuh and Andrea C. McAleenan, eds.

This valuable book underscores the importance of student affairs work to the small college mission. It should be particularly useful to student affairs staff new to small colleges and to graduate students deciding what kind of institution will provide the best match between altruistic, service-oriented aspirations and personal development needs. Each chapter illustrates the contributions of student affairs staff to the sense of personalism that pervades the small college campus—from students' relationships with peers, staff, and faculty to the unique contributions of residential life programming. 128 pp. (1986).

Promoting Values Development in College Students

Jon C. Dalton, ed.

This easy-to-read book offers strategies practitioners can use to help the moral development of their students. It takes the research of Arthur Chickering, John Whiteley, Lawrence Kohlberg, William Perry, and others, and offers practical ways to implement their findings in student affairs programs and services. Although the monograph includes some review and discussion of research and theory in values development, it is written primarily for student affairs practitioners. Includes an annotated bibliography and an appendix of ten sample values education programs. 128 pp. (1985).
